

Lisha Lilia Diu 'Stella Loves',
Stella, 21 January 2007

WATCH WITH MOTHER

The Whitechapel Gallery in London undergoes a major renovation this year, so catch its first - and last - exhibition of 2007 while you can. The film-maker Margaret Salmon (winner of the inaugural MaxMara Art Prize for Women) has made three films, collectively entitled 'Ninna Nanna', about the lives of three Italian mothers. Until 11 February; 020 7522 7888

Set up by an ex-Vanity Fair editor, ChicSherlock is a slick jewellery website with a keen eye for accessories trends. It's home to both established and up-and-coming designers, including Rosanne Pugliese, formerly of Calvin Klein. We love her handmade, 22-carat-gold tendril wrap rings. £841.57; chicsherlock.com

Cheap trick

Classy coat, cash 'n' carry price. Will see you through those spring showers in style. £25, by Matalan (0845 330 3330)

Win this

Scorah Pattullo has become a firm favourite with fashionable types since it was launched two years ago. 'Stella' has a pair of Tatum/Bettina shoes (worth £230) from the new spring/summer range - on sale next month - to give away. Log on to stella.telegraph.co.uk to enter

Ninna Nanna (2006) by Margaret Salmon. Peartree. Getty